

Harold's passions were his family, his church, music, cooking and entertaining people. He is a very passionate person. His grandchildren by any comparison outshine all others. A good example is the Fourth of July barbecue where he and his friends entertained up to 500 people, but if one more comes, he will feed him too. Naturally the barbecue is beef usually cooked by #1 son Jerry.

Writ by han.